Aviva Health to Host 3rd Annual Shamrock Quest

ROSEBURG, Ore. – Families across Douglas County are invited to celebrate community, health and a little St. Patrick’s Day fun at the 3rd Annual Shamrock Quest, scheduled for Saturday, March 14, from noon to 3 p.m. in the Aviva Health parking lot, 150 Kenneth Ford Drive in Roseburg.

The free community event offers an afternoon of family friendly activities designed to connect residents with local organizations while promoting wellness and outdoor fun for all ages and abilities.

Participants are encouraged to wear their favorite shade of green and take part in a series of mini “quests” hosted by community partners from across Douglas County.

Activities will include an Adventure Quest, the WOWTruck, food trucks, face painting, Arrow Tag, a photo booth, and prize opportunities for quest participants.

“Shamrock Quest is all about bringing our community together in a fun and welcoming environment,” said event organizers. “Activities like this create opportunities for families to connect with local organizations while enjoying healthy activities and a little St. Patrick’s Day adventure.”

The event is organized by Aviva Health, Adapt, Thrive Umpqua and Thundering Water, along with several community partners working to promote health, connection and family friendly activities in Douglas County.
